

Fifth message of the Pleiadians on the current situation [extension of the transmission of healing energy]

received by Pavlina Klemm

Dear messengers of the loving frequencies!

The situation that is currently happening on planet earth is part of the whole purification process. It was bound to happen that your society, in terms of the cosmic laws, is divided into believing and non-believing people.

Not all humans are guests on Planet Earth from ancient times or from times when human civilization came down to this planet.

Not all people understand and grasp this situation.

Sooner or later, people with bad or impure intentions will no longer fit into the new, elevated cosmic frequencies of planet Earth. Only a few of them will be able to adapt. Only a few of them will be able to reprogram themselves to the positive in quite a short time. With this rather short time we mean ten of your human years at most.

For: The light-full frequency of your planet will increase always further. Those of them who do not adjust their consciousness, will leave this planet with great probability.

Planet Earth is increasing its frequency practically every day. It is doing very great things. And perhaps you have observed that your bodies are also doing great things and are adapting to the vibrations of the Earth.

If you feel tired, let your body rest.

If you feel sadness or any other emotion, let it go.

If you feel that you feel like crying, let the tears come and weep out of your soul anything that is hindering its purity. Human crying is the purest and most natural way of purifying your soul that Divine Intelligence has given you.

Free yourself from all the emotions and thought patterns that are being shown to you in this more than transparent time.

Your earth has gone with you through many eras and through many levels of consciousness. Its cosmic overall development is gradually bringing it into a level of consciousness that it was in at the time of Lemuria! In a time of purity of the natural kingdoms and purity of the human community.

Planet Earth is purifying itself so that it can return completely to its purity. It cleanses its surface, it cleanses its interior. It purifies the human community.

The dark beings and dark forces are trying to spread their webs and they want to tear the human community back into systems that they have created here over thousands of years. The dark beings and dark forces are sending out vast amounts of holographic projections to the human community through the media, making the human beings believe that the liberation of humanity and the liberation of the soul of humanity is unattainable.

Please do not be unsettled and trust your intuition. Behind the scenes there are countless processes taking place which liberate the human community.

Do not lose your faith. With your positive overview you not only increase your energy, but also the energy of the earth. Behind the curtain there are so many events that help to put the mosaic of the whole global process together!

The human community is now dividing, but this is how it had to happen. Believe that even those people who do not understand the situation at the moment are part of the divine plan and that their stay here on earth makes sense. These people open the eyes of conscious people even more. Through the existence of the unconscious people, the conscious people receive even more strength and even more determination to change something, and through this they take responsibility for all mankind.

The situation that has now come is taking a quick turn very soon. The processes in the background, both energetic and physical, are running. The results will not be long in coming.

This turn of events will bring an innumerable amount of changes for many human beings.

It brings the human mind a deep understanding of all existence. This turn brings understanding of one's own personal existence and it brings understanding of the meaning of one's own personal existence. It brings a deep reprogramming of programs that are not in harmony with divine justice and harmony.

This turn of events intervenes deeply in the soul of beings who have not acted in accordance with divine justice. Divine justice is a synonym for everything that is pure, loving and peace-loving.

One could say that the huge, subtle turn began at Easter this year.

The physical, visible turn will soon begin.

Now a step-by-step process is being carried out behind the scenes of the overall event, so that the artificially created systems can take on a new, positive form. Some of these systems lose their form completely.

We know that the current situation of artificially created "unfreedom" is very difficult for many of you.

Believe that this unfreedom is not part of the Divine Light laws and will not last long.

Do not lose your faith and please remain positive. Anything artificially created and unhelpful to divine justice will very soon leave your planet and your reality!

You are not alone in this process. Lightful and peace-loving alien civilizations will accompany you. They accompany you in lightful as well as physical form.

Beautiful cosmic Christ Light is streaming onto your planet, stabilizing the planet and giving comfort to the human heart in these complicated times.

Open your hearts and allow this light to flow into your hearts. This light brings healing, love and divine justice to the human community.

Your hearts are the key to healing each and every one of you. Your heart is the key to healing the entire human community.

*We, the Pleiadian beings, accompany and support you through the daily evening transmissions of healing energy from 9:00 pm to 9:20 pm.

In our first messages of March 2020 we told you that we will transmit healing energy every evening until the end of April 2020. To assist you in your overall human development and to support each of you who choose to receive the help we offer, we will continue to transmit healing energy beyond.

Our Pleiadian community has chosen to transmit the healing energy every night from 9:00 pm to 9:20 pm until we are called away. Until such time as we feel that you will no longer need our help.

We are with you and accompany you. We carry you in our heart. Our common reality and common existence with you is beautiful and resembles the shining rays of a clear sun.

The purity of the hearts connects us with you and gives us common strength. Our help for you makes us incredibly happy and fills us with joy.

You humans belong to our big family. Our realities are getting closer and closer and at some point the day will come when we will meet each other not only on the conscious level but also on the physical level. We look forward to this day and to this encounter unceasingly. And it is this feeling of unceasing joy that gives us the motivation and strength to continue to accompany you.

We love you. Love is the greatest and most beautiful thing we can all wish for. And our greatest wish is to see you humans happy again and connected to the love of the divine source.

That is our greatest wish and our strongest motor for our actions and our help for human civilization. In each of you we see only the purest, only the purest essence. And it is this very essence that connects us. The pure essence and the pure heart.

We are with you.

Peace with you, peace with us.

Your Pleiadian companions
