

Ninth message of the Pleiadians on the current situation [Nov. 14th]

Dear messengers of light!

Please stay in your hearts and do not worry about the future.

Please remain in your heart and do not give up your trust in the positive future.

Please stay in your heart and close once and for all with your personal dark past.

Stay in your heart and let the frequencies of peace and gratitude flow into it.

The frequencies of peace connect you with infinite peace and with infinite gratitude.

Allow these frequencies to flow into your system, bringing you closer in frequency to the divine source.

Do not worry about the future. On the contrary. Each of you is creating your new positive future right now, in this moment. And not only that.

All of you who are shining through your personal energetic systems are simultaneously shining through the entire systems of this planet!

Step by step you are moving towards the positive future.

Remember that the majority of human beings can only perceive what is happening around them through their sense of sight and hearing.

Remember that behind the scenes, which the majority of human beings cannot perceive with their senses, processes are taking place that help the human community to personal and collective victory.

The number of inhabitants of this planet who have awakened has reached 34 percent in these days. We have no choice but to joyfully note that the number of inhabitants who understand the current situation and consciously contribute to the entire spiritual movement is growing.

According to our estimates and calculations, the necessary number of residents (around 40 percent) will be reached by the end of this year.

This is a very positive outlook, because this number of inhabitants will help the positive wave of events to neutralize the dark webs of beings and elements torturing this planet and its population.

With each new day, planet Earth absorbs a huge amount of light, which helps to cleanse the interior of the Earth and to connect the heart of this planet absolutely and successfully with the divine Central Sun.

The solar system, of which your planet is a part, is successfully connecting with other solar systems and with the central sun of your galaxy.

The spiral development leads to positive evolutionary changes that are unstoppable and that take place without the human civilization having to do anything about it.

This is a law of the cosmos and a law of the divine source. The spiral, light-filled evolutionary development that not only your planet, but billions of other planets in your galactic system are experiencing, approaches the laws of light-filled love of the divine source and light-filled divine justice.

Your planet, together with other planets, is gradually rising into light-filled, loving planes. The love of the divine source is a magnet that lovingly draws the earth and its population to itself.

In a few years you will look around and realize that this "bad dream" that is currently happening on your planet was one of the last attempts of the dark forces to imprison the planet and its population in the third dimension.

But the evolution of the light in your heart will free you from this dimension.

Leave the outdated reality.

Abandon dark thoughts.

Concentrate on the positive future that is waiting for you right now and that is approaching inexorably.

Your planet Earth has already taken the first steps towards its positive future. Take such steps and connect your heart to the divine source. With the divine source of love that will definitely free you from the third dimension.

Stay in your heart.

Remain in trust.

The divine plan is infallible. The divine plan of your positive human future is already programmed.

Each of you is a key to the positive future. Each one of you. The key is in your heart. No more, no less.

Be aware of this fact and act accordingly.

Peace and gratitude in your heart help you step by step to step out of the heavy dimensions. Every positive action, every positive thought and every positive emotion neutralizes the outdated world of the third dimension.

The ascent into the fifth dimension of consciousness is unstoppable.

In order to strengthen your energy for this time we may give you a short affirmation:

"I am the love of light, and gratitude shines through my heart.

My reality is permeated by divine light.

The rays of cosmic freedom and purity free my soul, my spirit and my body.

My present and future are absolutely positive and full of love, light, happiness, peace and divine blessings.

My light beings always support and accompany me, and they show me the way that is best for me.

I bless myself, I bless my loved ones, I bless all beings of this planet.

I bless the planet earth.

Thank you, thank you, thank you."

We are with you and accompany you.

Every word of this transmission was positively programmed by us and the light beings.

Every word of this transmission can heal your heart, if you allow it. As you listen to the message and speak the affirmation, you are automatically connected to the love and light of the divine source.

Each and every one of you!

Peace with you, peace with us.

Gratitude and love connect us.

Your Pleiadian companions
