

Pavlina Klemm & The Pleiadians

Message of the Pleiadians on the current situation [Dezember 2021]

Dear messengers of light of this planet,

we greet you from the starry heights. From the Astro-altitude that is only a mere thought away from you.

We greet you from our luminous planes and bring you the vibration of the greatest, most powerful and most beautiful feeling that exists. We bring you the vibration of love.

People who have already remembered the light of their inner being vibrate in the same frequency that we are sending out to you right now. The vibration of love makes you realize that love is something that cannot be pretended.

Our love is flowing to you and pervading your hearts right now.

People who already remember their inner light are extending their rays into all planes of their reality. They extend their rays and fill the lives of other people with their light, without being aware of it.

The light expands, multiplies and increases its luminous intensity.

Lightful people are already really many on this planet. Many of these people are not aware that they belong to these lightful people at all. Maybe you also have the feeling that your personal light is not enough. Maybe you have the feeling that your soul light is not yet radiant enough.

But the opposite is true! Each of you, who is engaged in the thought of light and love, carries light and love within you. Each of you carries its purest essence in itself. And your interest in the subject with the light and the love increases the light and the love in you.

Every thought that connects to the light and love increases your personal light frequency and vibration.

Each of you carries light and love within you. Each of you is important. Your light and love within you are important. At this time, they are the most important things you can carry within you. These two elements are the most important qualities that ignite the light of humanity and bring love to this whole planet.

Through your light and love you heal the whole human community, because you are all connected. Even the people who have turned away from you at this time carry - just like you - the purest divine essence within them. Each of you has come from the light. Each of you carries the light essence within you. Many people have forgotten this fact. But not you. You continue to follow your goal of soul freedom, thereby igniting more and more of your soul light.

Your light expands in all directions of your reality. It connects with the purest essence of other people, through which you are all connected. You are like a living organism. You influence each other. Your light gives memory to other people. They may not remember right now, they may not remember in the next few weeks or months. But the memory will come eventually. Your light-filled core desires that.

It doesn't matter how long it will take them. Your light brings healing to others. It doesn't matter in what area their healing occurs. Their system, however, receives your light.

Every moment of your life makes sense from the perspective of higher events and from the perspective of higher consciousness. Every person you meet on this planet influences you in some way and you influence them. Your encounter, no matter how brief, influences you from a higher perspective throughout your earthly life. Every encounter brings a certain emotion, thought, vibration, frequency, color or sound. Each encounter influences you and moves you in a certain direction in your life. The situation that takes place on this planet influences all of your happenings and the direction of your earthly life path. This situation gives you new insights and new possibilities. This situation frees you from your stuck daily rituals and enables you to set out on the path to the light. To the light of your soul and to the light of your existence.

This situation that is taking place is bringing many more people of this planet new possibilities and new ways of life.

This situation is bringing many more people of good will together. Your vibration of love connects their hearts and connects their life paths. Their vibration of love in their hearts connects them. Do not worry about missing these people. The love in your heart points you in the right direction. Love connects you and gives you the motivation to create new communities.

New systems are emerging right now. Unite your forces, your energy and your abilities. Let new structures emerge that will function on the principles of the highest love.

Each of you holds the future in your hands. Not only your own, but also the future of humanity. You are connected to each other and influence each other. Millions of people of this planet have ignited their hearts and continue to expand their light. Do not forget that many enlightened people also live on other continents of this planet.

And these people, who have found their light and liberated the light of their soul, also influence you positively. The light of each of you is huge and connects through your purest essence.

If you have a feeling of sadness, emptiness or hopelessness, connect in purest intention with people who are already living their personal soul freedom.

Connect with their light and with their love. You will help each other through this.

Separate yourself regularly from the negative collective field of humanity.

Separate yourself consciously.

And connect consciously with the positive field of humanity. Because this field grows with every day and increases its light.

Even if the media make you live in the emptiness and hopelessness of the next days, the way to the light is inevitable. The cosmic conditions and the number of enlightened people testify to this. The community of humanity has chosen this path and is striving there. We cannot say how long it will take the human community as a whole to emerge from the dark reality. But we can say with certainty that the ascension will succeed.

Until then, each of you can make the exit from the dark reality. Each one for himself. The exit from the dark reality will succeed to each of you, who decides for it.

The exit from the dark 3D reality has already been accomplished by millions of people. These are the pioneers who have chosen a bright future. Each of you has this possibility. Your thoughts connect you with the light reality of the earthly being.

Each of you has the same chance. The more of you step out of the dark reality, the easier it will be for the next people, your next earthly successors, to step out of this reality. You create for them favorable conditions for the new path of their earthly reality through your pioneering work, through your positive courage and through the vibration of love and light in your heart. You are helping each other with this.

Do not forget that light multiplies. Light spreads and increases its intensity.

Your successors and their successors will have an easier course and advance into the light levels of the positive future.

In this time the beginning of the real exit of earthly people from the 3D matrix takes place. And very soon the exit of more people who have chosen to do so will take place much faster from 3D. You have opened this path, you are the pioneers. You have shown the way to others and simplified the course of their path.

In the very near future, in the next few weeks and months, the collective exit of millions of people from 3D reality will happen in a very rapid way. One by one, people who have chosen their bright future will exit the low vibrational planes at an accelerated pace.

The cosmic frequencies, the light beings, your family in the human sky with your ancestors, your cosmic family and the frequencies of the divine source all support you and will continue to support you.

At every step, the help of the world of light and its light beings is waiting for you. Do not forget that for this overall transition to light, an innumerable amount of light beings and divine frequencies have been sent to you. Do not forget that many peace-loving extraterrestrial beings are supporting this process behind the scenes of events, waiting for the divine intelligence to allow the official arrival on your planet.

Do not forget that many of our Pleiadian companions have descended to this planet and have assumed a human body for their existence and for their activity. Many of us live among you and help you. Surely you feel the purity of their soul and the purity of their behavior.

You are in a phase of transition. The transition to luminous planes. Get out of the low vibrational levels with your thoughts. Get out of these levels and show the way to the others. Get out through the power of your heart vibration and let other human beings follow your example, who do not have enough courage or power yet. Support each other. You are connected. You are a living organism.

If you wish, you can use the following affirmation. Disconnect from everything low vibrational and invite only the positive into your life, what supports you and what helps you on your life path to soul freedom. Your thoughts connect you with your light-filled future.

First connect consciously with all light beings that accompany you.
Illuminate your heart with light, love and gratitude.

Say this affirmation out loud three times in a row. Your voice connects you with the cosmic lightful vibration of these words.

"Now and in this space, I activate the light loving power of my heart.

My heart receives the vibration of light and love.

By virtue of my heart and by virtue of my positive thoughts, I connect with the lightful levels of my being.

The positive power of my thoughts connects me with my positive lightful future.

Present and future are one.

Space and time are one.

In the here and now I live the lightful and loving reality of my being.

I am full of light.

I am loving.

I am perfect.

Thank you, thank you, thank you."

We wish you all much light, love, power, energy, courage and trust for the coming year 2022.

We are with you and accompany you lightly.

With love

Your Pleiadian companions
